

RECOGNIZING FIRE CHIEF
MICHAEL J. PRESTON

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 1, 2005

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Michael J. Preston, Newark, California's Fire Chief, who is retiring after thirty years of exemplary service.

Chief Preston joined the Newark Fire Department on May 1, 1974 as a firefighter. He rose through the ranks to be appointed City of Newark Fire Chief on January 1, 2001. He was president of the Newark Firefighters Association from 1980 to 1985 and assumed the duties of Fire Marshal on December 16, 1987. In his capacity as Fire Marshal, Chief Preston developed the City's sprinkler ordinance for residential occupancies. He was promoted to First Assistant Fire Chief on January 1, 1990 and promoted to Assistant Fire Chief in 1993.

In 1998, Chief Preston served as the City of Newark's Disaster coordinator and in this capacity, procured an auxiliary water system for emergency use. He was also instrumental in promoting the highest level of advanced life support by supporting the presence of paramedics on City of Newark fire engines. In 1999, Chief Preston served as President of the Alameda County Fire Chief's Emergency Medical Services Section.

He has made numerous contributions to enhance the fire safety of Newark's residents. He secured the Automatic Aid Agreement with the neighboring city of Union City and supported technological advancements for the city by procuring advanced technology fire engines that improved service levels. He has also promoted programs that have proven beneficial to the County of Alameda by assisting in the development of the Alameda County Emergency Medical Service System.

I join the admirers of Michael J. Preston's thirty years of dedicated commitment to excellence and offer my sincere appreciation for all he has done to make a difference.

527S

HON. JOHN B. LARSON

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 1, 2005

Mr. LARSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to draw awareness to a bill I will reintroduce to address concerns that have been expressed about political organizations referred to as "527s".

527s are named after a section of the Internal Revenue Code that specifies the tax treatment accorded political organizations and tax-exempt organizations which make political expenditures. Under Section 527, all political organizations are tax-exempt for purposes of federal tax law.

Starting this month, new rules will require more 527s to register with the FEC. 527s whose only purpose is to support or oppose a Federal candidate may only do so with "hard money". Citizens who give to the hard money accounts of these 527s will be under the same contribution limits as if they were giving to Members of Congress. 527s will also not be able to finance their entire operation using "soft money". They will now have to use a mix of at least 50 percent hard money to pay for activities and expenses, raised using federal limits.

This legislation goes a step farther to give the Department of the Treasury, the Federal Election Commission, and the American people a better understanding of 527 organizations by aiming to place them to the same type of reporting requirements as political action committees (PACs) and other political organizations.

This bill will provide the American people with more information about who is donating to the political process and how that money is being spent. If we want to inspire and encourage more Americans to participate in the political process, we must make all aspects of the process accessible to them.

This bill would make 527s more transparent through the four main components of this bill. First, any political organization that meets defined minimum financial requirements must disclose this information to the Department of the Treasury. Second, political organizations that raise, spend or intend to raise and spend over $25,000 in an election year will have to file disclosure reports with the IRS monthly. Previously, organizations in this category were only required to file quarterly. Third, organizations with less than $25,000 in receipts must file quarterly. Fourth, the Department of the Treasury and the Federal Election Commission must work together to improve the database disclosure system.

The guidelines in my bill will bring to light political organizations' donors and demonstrate they have nothing to hide. Moreover, this information will help Americans to make more informed choices.

I believe that efforts to restrict 527 organizations could raise First Amendment concerns and may merely result in their reconstitution as 501(c)4, 501(c)5 and 501(c)6 organizations, which have virtually no public disclosure requirements. I believe that it would be more beneficial to our political process to mandate greater transparency of 527s rather than attempting to shut them down or otherwise curtail their participation in the political process. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

BITTERSWEET RETIREMENT

HON. JIM COSTA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 1, 2005

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and wish well in retirement Mr. Tom Clark, of Bakersfield, California. This individual has served his community, his state, and his country well.

Born October 21, 1945, Tom attended school in Bakersfield until he joined the army in 1968 and was promoted to the rank of Sergeant E-5. Following his honorable discharge in 1970, Tom enrolled in the Graduate Program at University of Pittsburgh; where he graduated in 1974 with a Master of Science in Water Supply-Water Pollution Control.

We are thankful Tom utilized his training in school to become a key player in water issues back home, in the Central Valley.

Tom was an initiator of the effort to create the Bay-Delta Accord of 1994 as a response to unreliable water supplies. This agreement was a precursor to the CalFed Record of Decision by the Department of the Interior, which provided for a series of agreements between water agencies and environmentalists.

He was a key player in negotiating the Monterey Amendments to the State Water Project contracts that included crucial revisions to the water shortage provision and the transfer of the Kern Water Bank from the State of California to the Kern Water Bank Authority, a Joint Powers Authority. Tom's efforts were lauded by the community and as a show of gratitude he received the prestigious Association of California water Agencies' Excellence in Water Leadership Award in 1996.

Among his many accomplishments, Tom has taken part in numerous state and local water activities; not only in the public sector, but also in the private sector. He has established himself as an authority on water issues, serving as an expert witness for water management and water rights before state and federal courts as well as before the State Water Resources Control Board.

More recently Tom has been challenged as the Kern County Water Agency General Manager, and taken on a number of significant projects and responsibilities including the acquisition of Kern Lower River rights and the coordination of the Agency's supports toward the passage of the CalFed authorization in October 2004.

Tom has served the people of the state of California and the community of Bakersfield in an exemplary manner. For us, his retirement is bittersweet—although it is well deserved his efforts will be greatly missed. I congratulate Tom Clark, and wish his family all the best.

YOUNG AGENCY CELEBRATING A CENTURY IN BUSINESS

HON. JAMES T. WALSH

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 1, 2005

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 100th anniversary of the Young Agency, Inc., an independent insurance, bonding, and risk-management company located on Syracuse's North Side. Since its inception in 1905, the agency has grown into a 100 employee business with close to 10,000 clients.

George Young, the founder of Young Agency, began his business in 1905 by selling fire insurance door-to-door. After several location changes, the agency moved to its current office at Bridewater Place at 500 Plum St. George Young passed away in 1936, leaving the agency to his sons, Albert and Carl. With the help of George Schunck, George's grandson, and Roy S. Moore III, the current president, the agency has expanded into a respected company with more than $220 million in annual premiums. In 2001, Young merged with Florida-based Brown & Brown, Inc., the nation's eighth-largest insurance brokerage firm.

On behalf of the clients, employees and community members of Syracuse, I extend my best wishes and many more successful years to the Young Agency, a valued fixture in our community.

HONORING CAPTAIN MARK
STUBENHOFFER

HON. TOM DAVIS

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 1, 2005

Mr. DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and remember the life of Captain Mark Stubenhofer and his remarkable service to the United States of America.

Captain Stubenhofer was born on April 18, 1974 in Fairfax, Virginia. He grew up here in the suburbs of this great capital of freedom and was an all-American from the start. He delivered newspapers in the morning before school and worked long after the school day ended doing homework or practicing baseball. He attended West Springfield High School here in Fairfax, Virginia and attended Nativity Catholic Church nearby. He was elected Student Government Vice President at West Springfield and during his senior year played baseball on the varsity squad. He attended Clemson University where his leadership skills were honed through the school's ROTC program. He graduated from Clemson in May of 1996 and immediately began fulfilling his obligation to the Army.

Captain Stubenhofer was commissioned as an infantry officer and attended both the elite Airborne and Ranger schools. He went on to serve two tours in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. In his first tour in 2003 he helped liberate five Iraqi cities. In his second tour Captain Stubenhofer served as a company commander for the 1st Battalion, 41st Infantry Regiment, 3rd Brigade, 1st Armored Division. He was awarded numerous medals and honors, among them two Bronze Star Medals, the Purple Heart, the Meritorious Service Medal, and two Army Commendation Medals. Tragically, he was killed in combat on December 7, 2004.

During his final tour of duty, Captain Stubenhofer's third child was born—a daughter he would never see or hold. He asked his wife Patty to name the child Hope. Mark, in his last phone conversation to his parents, commented that it was hope that brought him to Iraq and to the service of his country.

Mr. Speaker, we owe Captain Mark Stubenhofer, and all those who have made the ultimate sacrifice for their country, a debt of gratitude that can never be repaid. While we pay homage to fallen heroes like Mark with monuments of stone, the most fitting tribute is the enduring memory of their lives. As Pericles, the great orator, builder, and general of Athens said, "For to famous men all the earth is a sepulcher; and their virtues shall be testified not only by the inscription in stone at home but by an unwritten record of the mind, which more than of any monument will remain with everyone forever."

Mr. Speaker, I call on this body to forever remember Captain Mark Stubenhofer and to keep record in our minds and hearts, the great works and sacrifices that our sons and daughters of the military continue to make on our behalf.

INTRODUCTION OF JOHN'S LAW

HON. FRANK A. LoBIONDO

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 1, 2005

Mr. LoBIONDO. Mr. Speaker, we will soon observe the fifth anniversary of the tragic death of one of my constituents. U.S. Navy Ensign John Elliott, who had just received his commission to Naval Flight School in Pensacola, Florida, was struck and killed by a drunk driver on July 22, 2000. The accident instantly killed Elliott and seriously injured his passenger, Kristen Hohenwarter.

Sadly, it was later discovered that the driver responsible for Elliott's death had been arrested for drunken driving earlier that evening. Having called for a ride, he was picked up by a friend and returned to his car. Elliott was on his way home for his mother's birthday party when he crossed paths with the intoxicated driver.

Nearly 5 years after that tragic accident, his parents continue the fight to save other families from the grief they have endured. Lobbying the New Jersey State Legislature, the Elliott's saw to fruition the drafting, passage and ultimate enactment of John's Law. The law ensures that individuals who pick up an arrested driver sign a document accepting custody. Additionally, it gives State Police the authorization to impound the automobile of an arrested driver for up to 12 hours.

Today, I am introducing legislation to encourage all states to enact legislation to require law enforcement officers to impound motor vehicles of those charged with driving while intoxicated (DWI). The legislation would make states that adopt DWI vehicle impoundment programs eligible to receive federal grant funds under the existing Alcohol Impaired Countermeasures Program to help defray costs.

We are making important strides to eliminate the senseless deaths caused by the lethal mix of alcohol and automobiles. Annual deaths from drinking and driving have decreased from approximately 28,000 in 1980 to 16,068 in 2000. In 1982, 57 percent of all traffic fatalities were alcohol-related. In 2000, that percentage fell to 38 percent. However, much work remains to be done. Each death is a preventable one and I am sure this resolution will go a long way in ensuring deaths like Ensign Elliott's are prevented and families are saved from the pain the Elliotts and other families across the nation have endured.

I urge my colleagues in the House to support this legislation.

IN HONOR OF SPECIALIST
MICHAEL S. EVANS

HON. ANDER CRENSHAW

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 1, 2005

Mr. CRENSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a fallen soldier who lost his life in the line of duty. On January 28, 2005, United States Army Specialist Michael S. Evans died in Baghdad when his military vehicle was struck by an improvised explosive device. Specialist Evans was serving in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Mr. Speaker, Specialist Evans gave his life in the service of his country. He answered the call when his Nation needed him. His willingness to serve our country has made our Nation safer and more secure.

I hope Michael's wife Melissa, his parents Michael and Wynette, and the rest of his family and friends know that our Nation thanks him for his service and sacrifice. He served our Nation as a patriot. His contribution will never be forgotten.

Specialist Evans was assigned to B Company, 1088th Engineer Battalion, 256th Infantry Brigade, Army National Guard, New Roads, Louisiana. Specialist Evans's wife resides in Metairie, Louisiana and his parents live in my hometown of Jacksonville, Florida.
